

Heather Kempczinski, MD

Heather Kempczinski, M.D. is a general pediatrician. She received a Bachelor of Science degree from Duke University and an M.D. from the University of North Carolina School of Medicine. She trained in pediatrics at Massachusetts General Hospital. She is currently finishing a Master of Science in Global Health at Northwestern University. She is a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics and a member of its Section on Global Health. Heather co-chairs the Pediatric Advisory Board at Massachusetts General for Children, serves as Vice-Chair of the Duke Catholic Center Advisory Board, and is a member of the Duke Global Health Institute Advisory Board. She is the Treasurer for the Ann Kempczinski Foundation. She lives in Chicago with her husband Chris (T '91) and children Jack (T '24) and Lily (T '25).