

GLOBAL HEALTH EXCHANGE

DUKE
GLOBAL HEALTH INSTITUTE

Building Trust and Partnerships in Resource-Constrained El Salvador Settings to Improve Maternal and Infant Health

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26
9 - 10 AM

Trent Hall, Room 124

Refreshments will be served

Alba Amaya-Burns, MD, MSc

Clinical Associate Professor

Behavioral Science and Community Health Department,

College of Public Health and Health Professions, University of Florida

globalhealth.duke.edu/calendar