MOTHER’S EARLY MARRIAGE PREDICTS CHILD MALARIA IN THE PERUVIAN AMAZON

SHENG LIU
Master of Science in Global Health Candidate

Why is younger maternal age of marriage or a family member’s involvement in labor migration associated with increased malaria risk among children?
Find out on Monday!

MONDAY 4/22/13
TRENT 124
12-1PM