

Work Study Student Position

Department of Medicine - Division of Infectious Disease

The Division of Infectious Disease in the Department of Medicine is seeking an undergraduate work-study student to assist with One Health Certificate Program in Global Health. The ideal work-study student will be organized, detail oriented, and self-motivated with the ability to work independently. Applicants must be eligible for Federal or Duke work-study program.

Students applying for the position should send their resume to Christy Dixon at christy.dixon@dm.duke.edu.

Please use the email subject line “Work Study – ID Division/DOM”.

Photographs from the training program:

